

Adventurer Law Recitation

The following is a suggested explanation of each part of the law, to be recited from memory as the altar is built at Induction. It is intended that seasoned club members will recite, but in a small club everyone may have a part.

Jesus can help me to...

Be obedient - I will obey God's laws and cheerfully do what my parents and teachers ask me to do. I will obey the laws of my country.

Be pure - My body is the temple of God, so I want to keep it clean. I will not swear, smoke, drink alcohol, do drugs, or do any other thing God says is disgusting.

Be true - I will always tell the truth and never try to deceive - even if I may get in trouble for it.

Be kind - I will look for ways to make other people happy. I will never hurt a person or animal intentionally. I will share my toys too.

Be respectful - I will be courteous to those whom God put in authority over me (like parents and teachers) and to those who are younger and weaker than me (like little brothers and sisters). I will take good care of other people's property, even something as small as a borrowed pencil.

Be attentive - I will listen when someone is talking to me at home, at school, and at church. I will especially listen for God to tell me what to do with my life.

Be helpful - I will look for ways to help and not wait to be asked. I can help family at home; teachers and friends at school, and other people other places. I can even help God.

Be cheerful - I will not grumble or complain when I don't get my way or when I have work to do. I will remember that God made me; God doesn't make junk, so I'm not junk! Knowing that makes me Happy.

Be thoughtful - I will make courtesy a habit, both in words and actions. I will look for ways to be nice to people. I will not be rude or irritating.

Be reverent - I will listen carefully to God, His word, and His messengers. I will take good care of my Bible and church property. I will never make fun of holy things.
